Dear Sirs,

Four months ago, I signed up for a premium membership at Fitness First at a monthly fee of $55. When I signed up, I was told that I was free to cancel my membership at any time, for any reason, with no extra payment.

Since I joined, I have been extremely disappointed in the Fitness First's facilities and staff. The locker rooms and swimming pools are poorly maintained and extremely dirty. The Jacuzzi has been out of order for more than a month and repairs on it have not even begun. The Pilates class schedule has been changed several times, without notice, and the instructor never seemed to be fully devoted to the class.

I telephoned Fitness First and was told that - contrary to what I was told verbally when signing up - I would have to pay a "processing fee" of $75 to end my membership. One week later, I received a bill in the mail saying I still owed the processing fee. I refuse to pay this fee.

If you continue billing me, I will be discussing the matter with my lawyer. In addition, I will be filing formal complaints with the City Business Bureau and the Health Department about the unsanitary condition of your facilities.

I suggest you discuss the matter with your billing department immediately.

We purchased new exercise equipment, renovated locker rooms and began offering a new safety training course.

A month ago, you responded enthusiastically to the survey about the fitness center. Based on your recommendations, new changes will be planned. They will take effect on January 2. Finally, the employee fitness center will be open on extra three hours Monday through Thursday. Also, long-time members will be surely pleased to hear that the popular personal manager Tony Stumpo will be promoted to the manager of the fitness center.

We encourage more employees to take advantage of what the center has to offer. Memberships will continue to be subsidized and remain at $20 per month. And for a limited time only, we offer a special rate for new members. Members who sign up before December 31 will be charged only $15 per month for their first year.
